FAA System

- Established in 2009, the system has provided a searchable National DBE/ACDBE Directory and reposting of airport bid opportunities
- Also includes airport goals and program

<https://faa.dbesystem.com>

Introducing FAA Matchmaker

- There are 5000 airports and 40,000+ DBEs and ACDBEs in the United States.
- Airports publish opportunities and procure through widely varying methods.

How can firms efficiently find business?

Introducing FAA Matchmaker

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://faa.dbesystem.com/>. The page features a dark blue header with the United States Department of Transportation logo and the Federal Aviation Administration logo. Navigation links for "OUR MAIN SITE" and "CONTACT SUPPORT" are present. The main content area is white and titled "FAA Matchmaker System". It contains four primary sections: "National Certified Directory" with a search bar and a "Search Certified Directory" button; "Airport Opportunities" with buttons for "View Bid Board", "Register for Bid Alerts", and "Submit a Bid Opportunity"; "DBE & ACDBE Resources" with buttons for "DBE & ACDBE Links", "Airport Goals", "FAA Training", and "View FAA Jobs"; and "About the Matchmaker System" with a link to "Learn more about this system and how it works today" and a button for "Information for Vendors & Airports". A footer bar at the bottom states: "The FAA Matchmaker System is operated by B2Gnow in conjunction with the FAA Disadvantaged Business Enterprise Program. © Copyright 2018".

DBE/ACDBE Directory

The FAA DBE/ACDBE Directory is a nationwide list of certified Disadvantaged Business Enterprises (DBE) and Airport Concession Disadvantaged Business Enterprises (ACDBE) and is operated in partnership with B2Gnow. Firms actively certified by a government organization and loaded into the Directory are available from this search engine.

Information about each DBE/ACDBE includes contact information, location, certified business description, and assigned commodity codes. To view the entire list, leave all fields blank and click the Search button. Search results may be viewed but cannot currently be download.

Note: the information contained in this directory comes from a variety of sources. If a discrepancy is found in a certification record, please contact the Certifying Agency listed on the record. The data should not be relied upon as an original record; refer to the source state UCP directory for verification. The certifying agencies have made determinations that the entities shown herein are certified as DBE and/or ACDBE firms, based solely on their own representation of ownership and licenses. You are encouraged to exercise due diligence and ascertain, for yourself, which firm is qualified to perform specific portions of work for you on any particular project.
